

WiSE Connect

Applications for funding are now being accepted.

Due date: February 15, 2010

The NSERC/RIM Chair for Women in Science and Engineering for Ontario invites submissions for WiSE Connect funding.

The goals of WiSE Connect are:

- 1) Encourage and facilitate networking, collaboration and sustained communication between organizations and individuals involved in WiSE initiatives.
- 2) Support the participation of women of all ages in science and engineering as a means of addressing the under-representation of women in these fields at all levels.

WiSE Connect funding is available for the following activities:

- Participation in conferences, workshops and other related events.
- Organization of conferences, workshops and other such events.
- Networking, collaboration and sustained communication between organizations and individuals involved in WiSE activities.
- Related outreach initiatives, e.g. connecting individuals to mentors and role models.
- Other initiatives which support the goals of the NSERC/RIM Chair for Women in Science and Engineering Program (www.cwse-on.ca).
